Summer Camp Seven Ranges: Building Bridges For Twenty Years

Grab your knot ropes and be prepared to join forty three scouts and six adults leaders for a fun filled week at the reservation. Summer camp is often the highlight of a young scout's summer. The opportunity to advance on the scouting trail, earn merit badges, and complete requirements for pipestone are unlimited. In the course of the next two weeks, scouts should select which merit badges they would like to work on as well as check the schedule to plan their mornings. A good site for parent information is buckeyecouncil.com. Look for the link to Seven Ranges Leader's Guide. WE WILL CHECK IN AT SEVEN RANGES AT 1 PM SHARP, AS A TROOP!! EVERYONE HAS TO BE THERE ON TIME TO CHECK IN. Please remember the first meal of camp is not until Sunday dinner; feel free to bring a picnic lunch.

A special thank you to the 6 adult leaders and other parent volunteers camping with Scouts at summer camp this year! Couldn't do it without YOU!

Camp Stigwandish

---

Troop 201 is heading to Camp Stigwandish, part of the Greater Western Reserve Council in Madison, Ohio on the weekend of June 9-11th. This will be tent camping for the entire troop. The lakes at Camp Stigwandish that are close to our camp offer some fantastic fishing. This is a great opportunity to catch your fish and photo them for Fishing Merit Badge. Scouts, please bring any fishing gear that you have. The troop will also have some gear available as well as bait. Scouts are to meet at the High School Locker at 6 p.m. on June 9th in Class A Uniform. We will drop you back off home on Sunday before noon. The cost for the trip is $10. As always, Scouting Parents are welcome to attend and help with transportation. Look for the permission slips and information at the next two troop meetings. Register by June 6th.

Graduating Eagle Scouts For 2006

Congratulations to the four Eagle Scouts; Eric Schade, Jim Bajorek, Matt Drda, and Kevin Mueller, that received their honors at our last Eagle Court of Honor along with Eagle Scout R.J. Koharik. We wish them future success and thank them for their leadership in the troop. Godspeed, as all five are off to college!

---

Blue Jacket Camp Out

---

On the weekend of July 28th through July 30th, Scouts will have the opportunity to attend Blue Jacket, Ohio's Great Outdoor Play in Xenia, Ohio. This will be a special Scout Camp Weekend that will include Shawnee War Chief legends, archery, obstacle courses, horsemanship, black powder demonstrations, and backstage tours. All meals will be included. Look for information and permission slips/cost as they become available. Any questions; contact Mr. Brad Paton.

2006 Flower Sale Success

---

Thank you to all the Scouts, parents, and supporters for your efforts in making our annual Flower Sale a huge success! A special thank you to Schuster's Greenhouse, without whose support we would be lost. As our troop continues to grow, we appreciate everyone working hard together on our biggest fund raiser for the year. These funds come back to every Scout all year long, offsetting camping costs, awards, troop equipment, troop scholarships for NYLT, and much more!

Philmont Expedition 2006

There will be a mandatory parent's meeting on June 20, after the committee and troop meetings at the German Club. By this date all monies, health forms, copy of state ID's and copies of health insurance cards should have been turned into Mr. Brady. At this meeting there will be plenty of releases to be signed by both the parents and the scouts for Blue Sky Adventure and the Philmont Trip. The final agenda for the trip will be discussed as well as emergency contact information. The boys should have all equipment bought, prepared, and "broken in". Scouts need to bring $20 for two crew t-shirts that will be handed out that evening. Scouts should report to the airport in their Class A Uniforms. We are expecting to have a fantastic adventure led by crew leaders, Pat Ashmun and Cam Brady. Gentlemen, thank your parents for this opportunity!
